Book Blurbs:

This Body of Death by Elizabeth George

An unexplained murder is the focus of the latest in the series featuring Inspector Lynley. A complex array of clues, motives and suspects. How British! (Is he ever going to marry Sgt. Davers?)

Find this book in the library at MYST/GEO.

Map of True Places by Brunonia Barry

A therapist deals with the suicide of one of her patients and finds parallels to her own life. A well-told tale of a troubled family.

Find this book in the library at FIC/BAR.

Triumph: Life After the Cult by Carolyn Jessop

The author was a lifelong member of a polygamist sect until her escape in 2003. She describes her experiences and her role in the 2008 raid on a similar sect.

Find this book in the library at 289.309/JES.

Catching Fire: How Cooking Made Us Human

by Richard Wrangham

The role of cooking in the evolution of the human race. You may want to pass on the raw veggies after reading this.

Find this book in the library at 394.12/WRA.

Fever Dream by Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child
Agent Pendergast discovers that the death of his wife 12 years ago was no accident.

Find this book in the library at MYST/PRE.

Rule of Nine by Steve Martini

The latest in the series featuring attorney Paul Madriani. He and his family are targeted by a fiendish and cunning assassin.

Find this book in the library at FIC/MAR.

Pearl of China by Anchee Min

A tale of life during the communist revolution. Inspired by the life of Pearl Buck.

Find this book in the library at FIC/MIN.

War by Sebastian Junger

The author describes the 14 months embedded with an Airborne unit in Afghanistan, a mixture of nerve-racking patrols, terrifying bombings and unrelenting boredom. An unforgettable portrait of America's finest.

Find this book in the library at 958.104/JUN.

Blurbs by Victor Commisso.

Computer Classes Offered at Lebanon County Libraries

Classes on various computer-related topics are being offered at the Lebanon County Libraries. Contact your local library for class dates and to register. These classes are made available through the Lebanon County Library System's Job Services Program and a community impact grant from United Way of Lebanon County. Class space is limited. If classes are full, check back for future classes or put your name on the waiting list at your local library.
